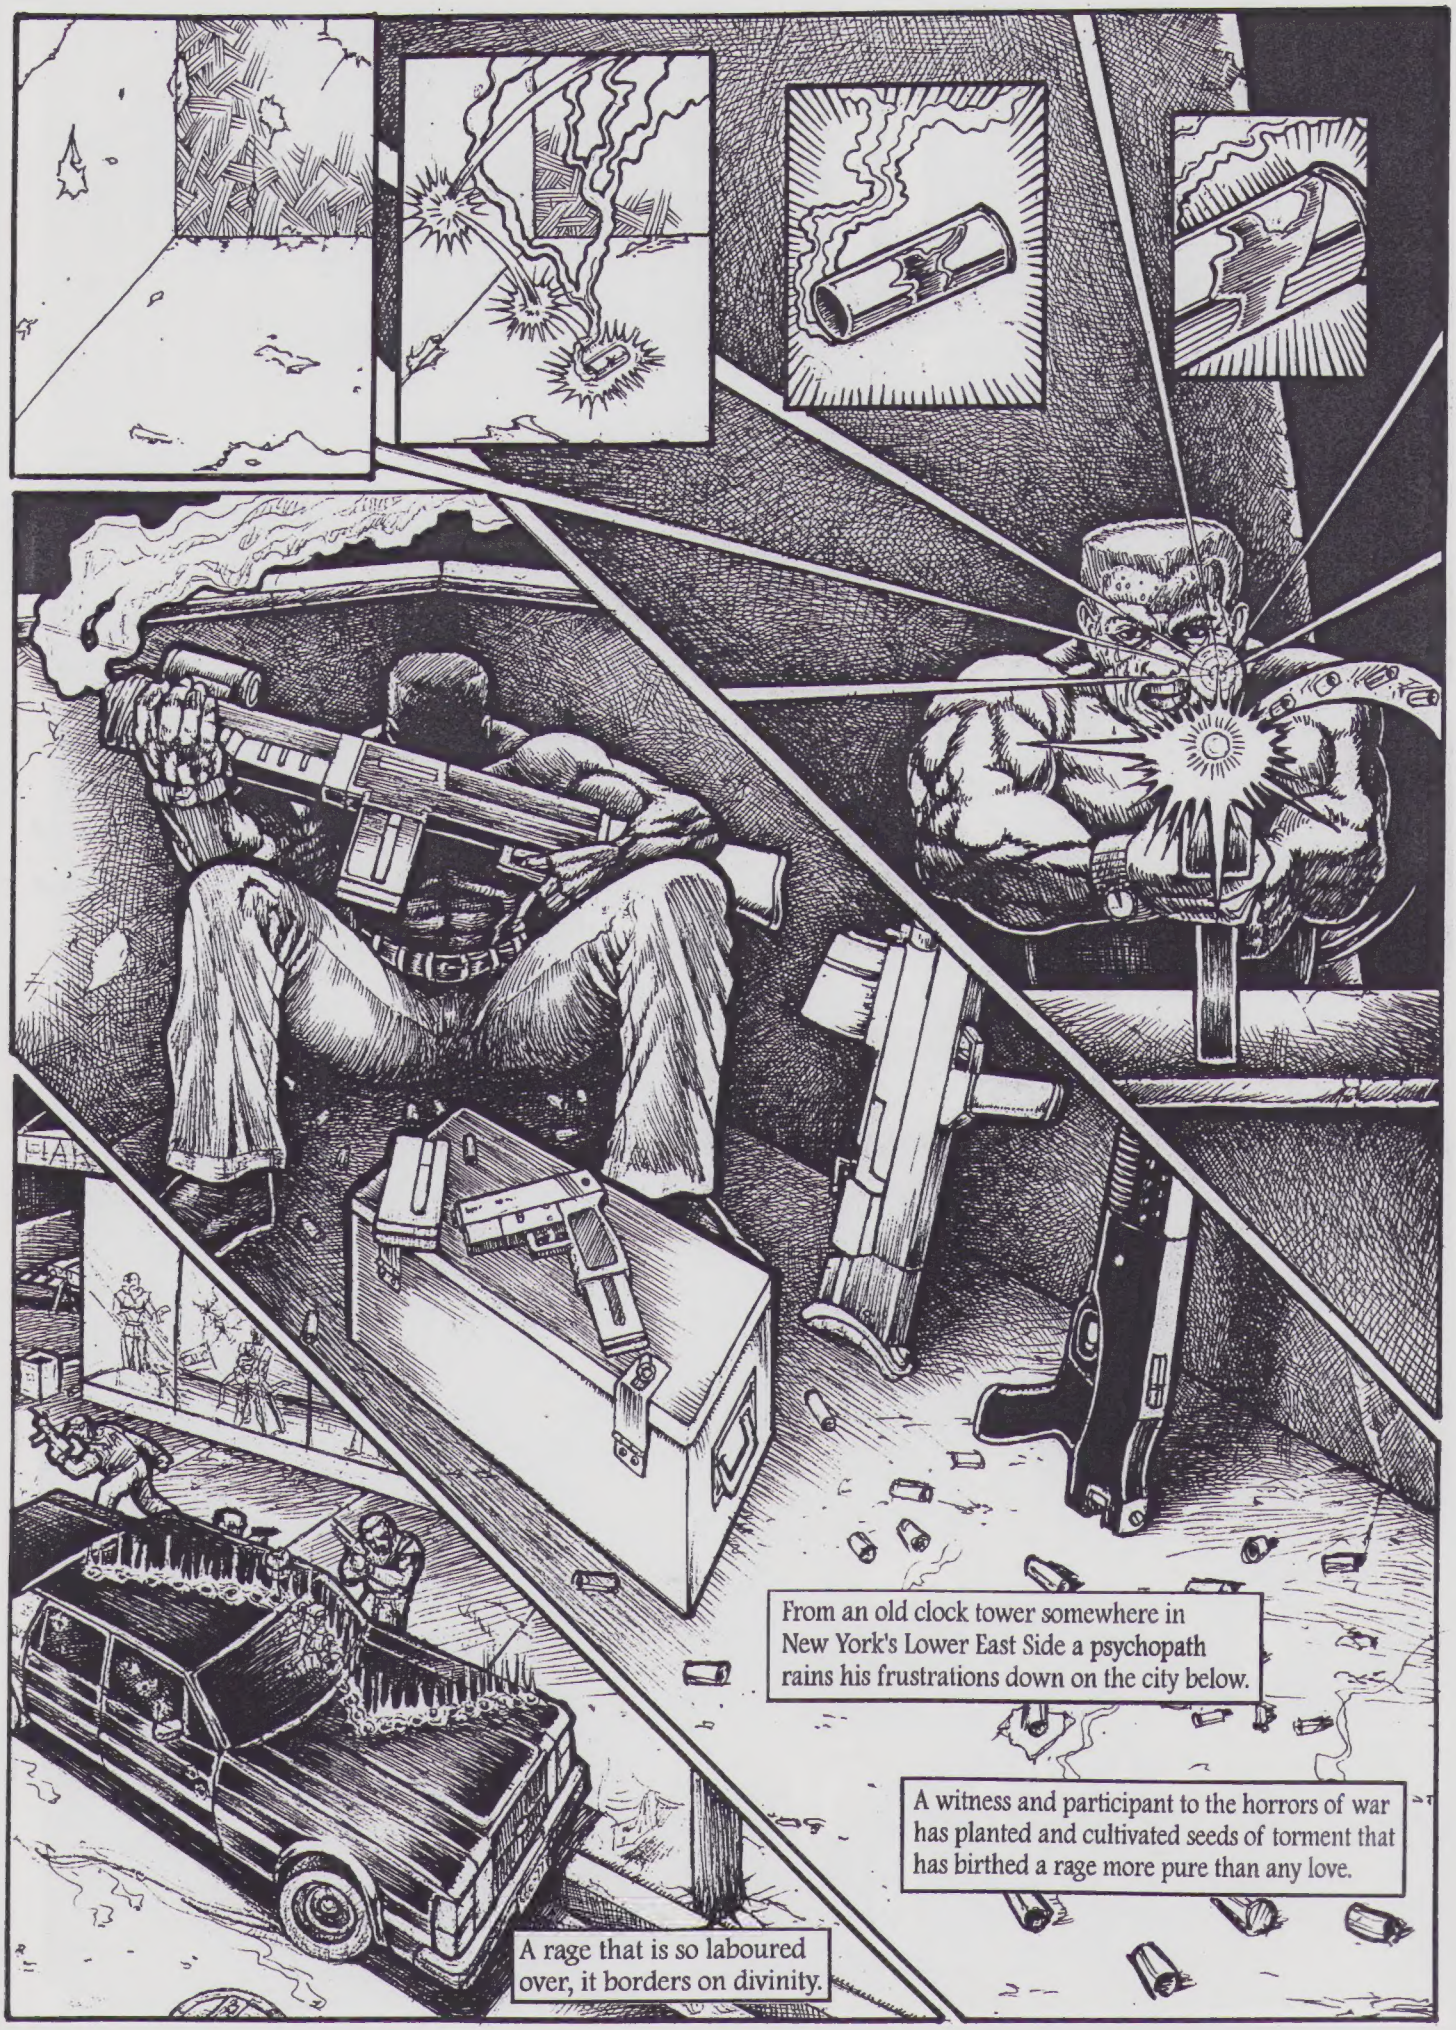
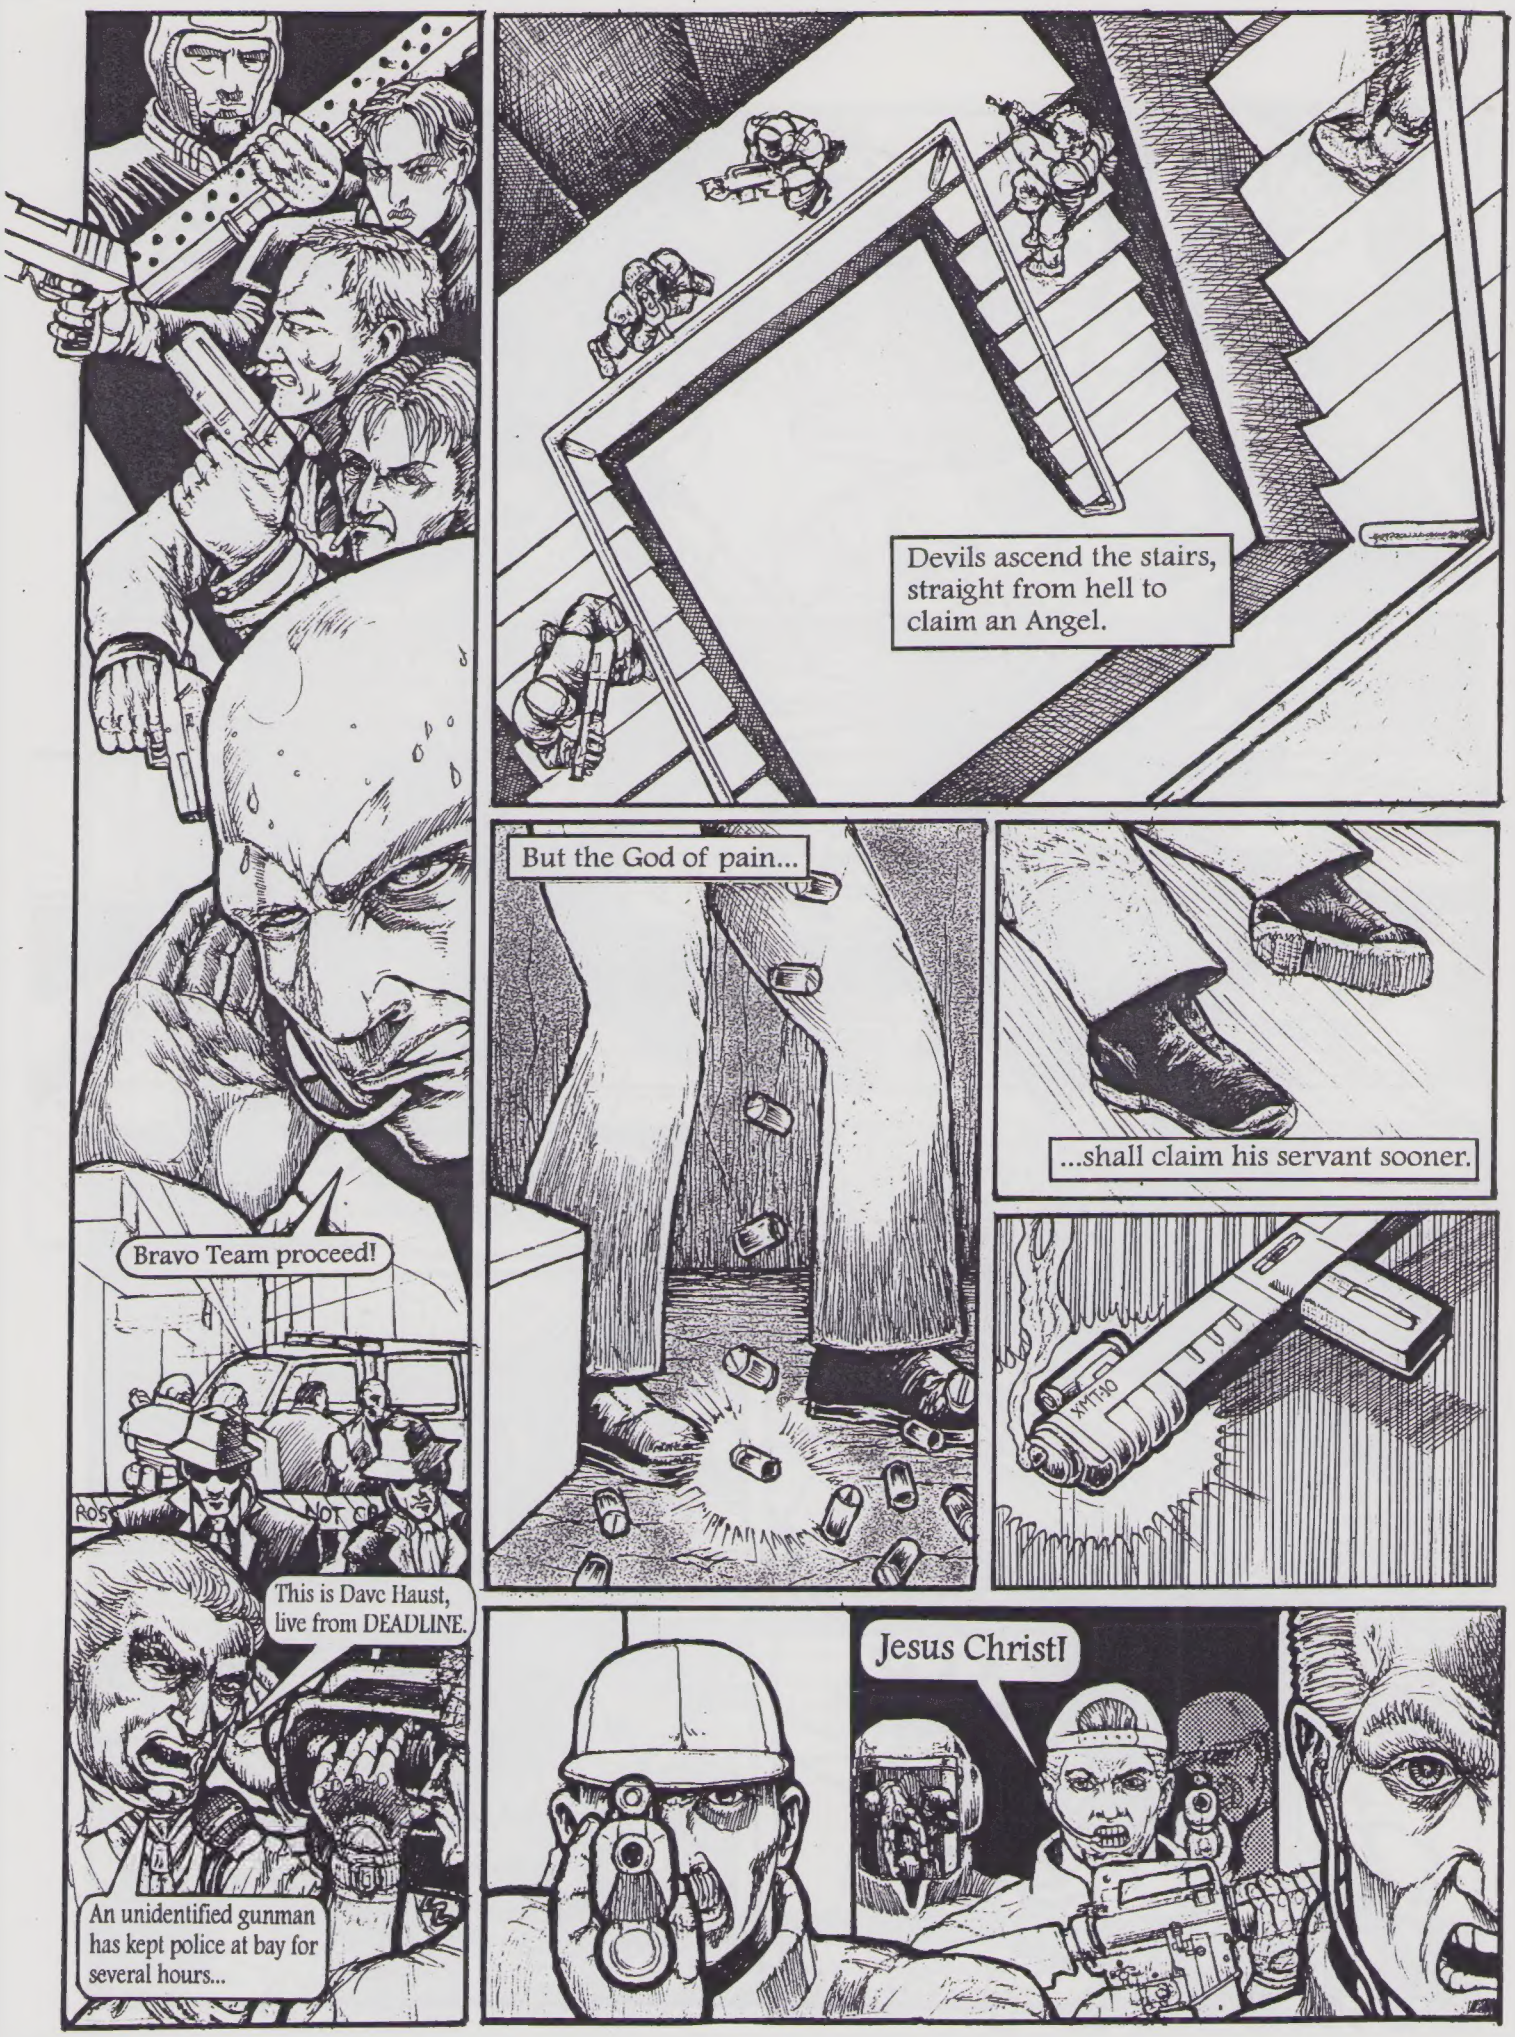
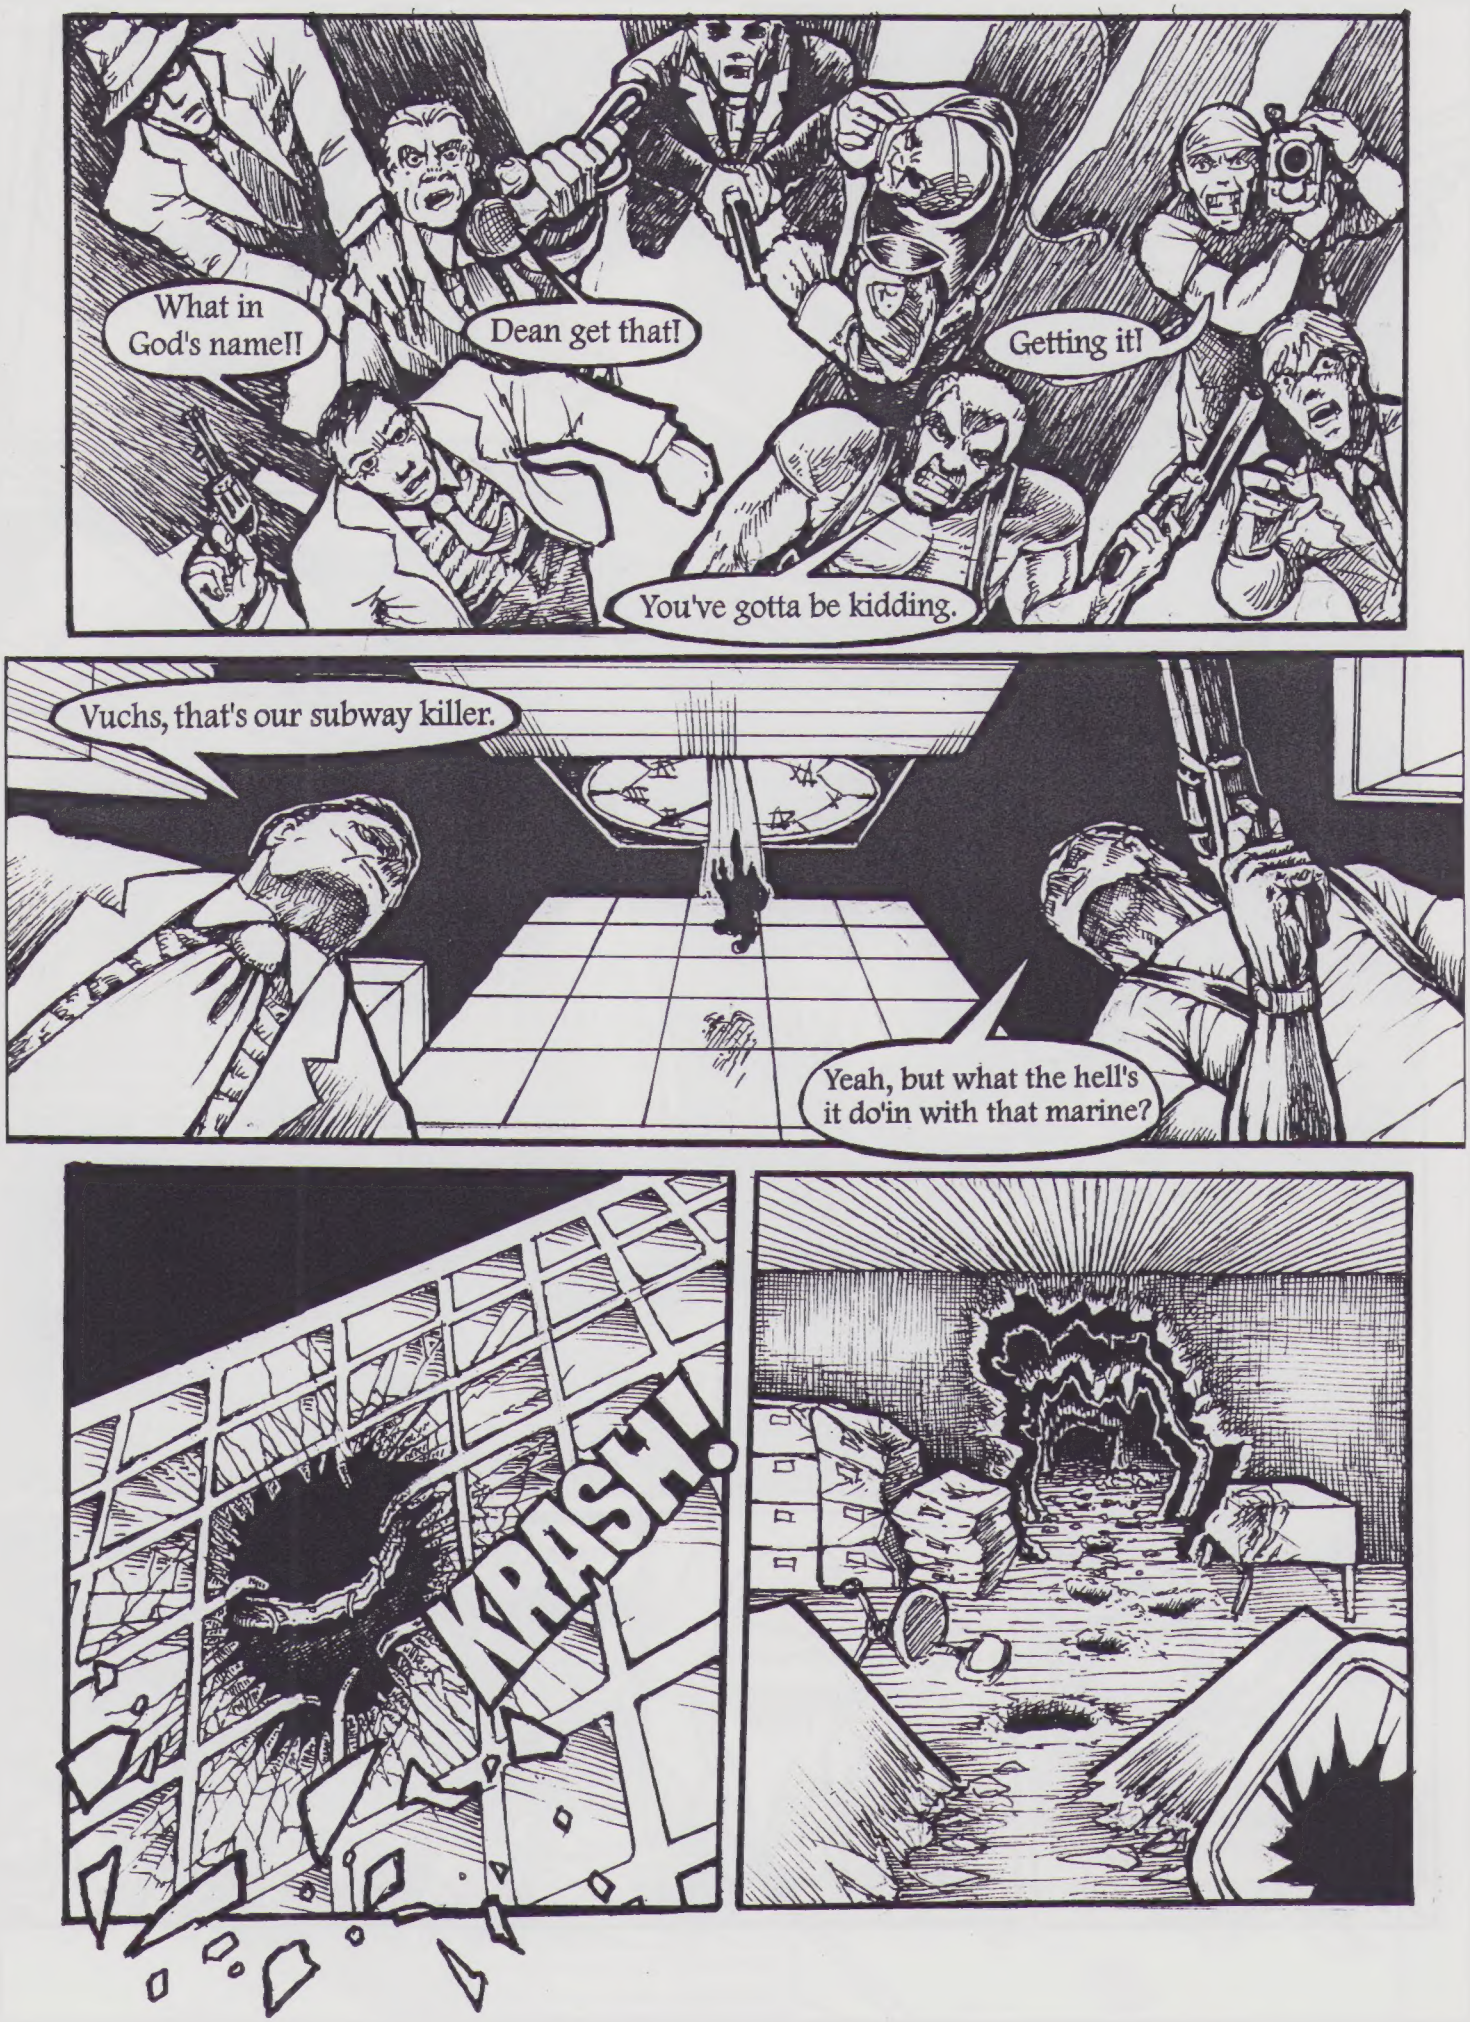
BANG! BANG! BANG!
CHING!
This has gotta be our friend from the subway!
He's ex-Gulf war and really pissed!
SWAT!
YOU MAKE MY SKIN CRAWL



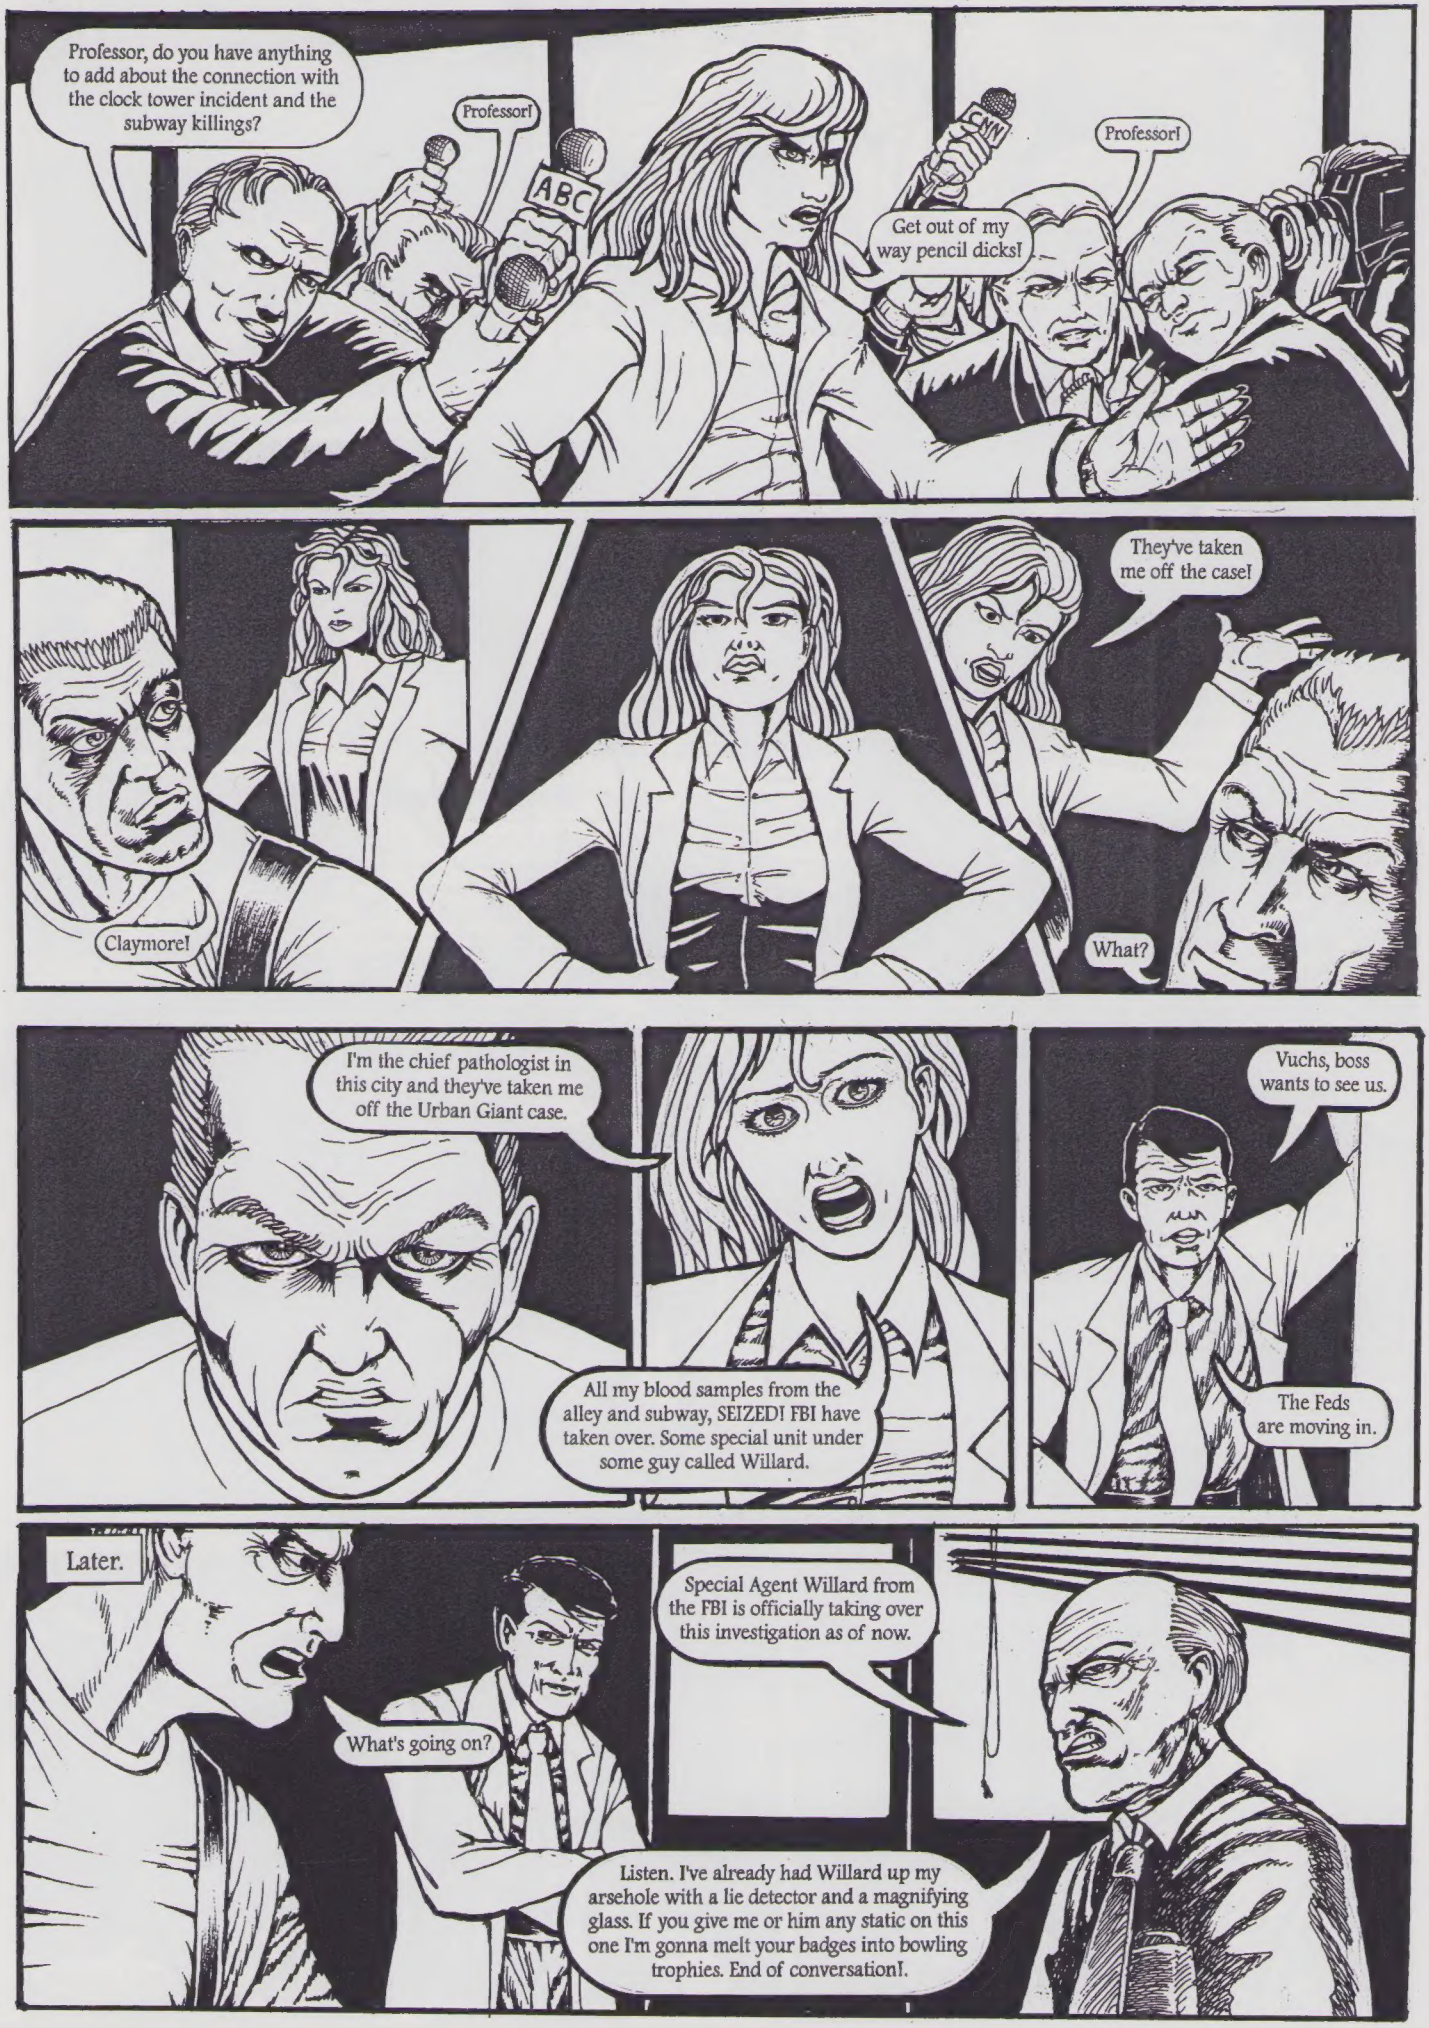
From an old clock tower somewhere in New York's Lower East Side a psychopath rains his frustrations down on the city below.
A witness and participant to the horrors of war has planted and cultivated seeds of torment that has birthed a rage more pure than any love.
A rage that is so laboured over, it borders on divinity.



Devils ascend the stairs, straight from hell to claim an Angel.
But the God of pain...
...shall claim his servant sooner.
Bravo Team proceed!
This is Dave Haust, live from DEADLINE.
An unidentified gunman has kept police at bay for several hours...
Jesus Christ!



What in God's name!!
Dean get that!
Getting it!
You've gotta be kidding.
Vuchs, that's our subway killer.
Yeah, but what the hell's it do'in with that marine?
KRASH!!



Professor, do you have anything to add about the connection with the clock tower incident and the subway killings?
Professor!
ABC

Professor!
Get out of my way pencil dicks!
Claymore!
They've taken me off the case!
What?
I'm the chief pathologist in this city and they've taken me off the Urban Giant case.
All my blood samples from the alley and subway, SEIZED! FBI have taken over. Some special unit under some guy called Willard.
Vuchs, boss wants to see us.
The Feds are moving in.
Later.
What's going on?
Special Agent Willard from the FBI is officially taking over this investigation as of now.
Listen. I've already had Willard up my arsehole with a lie detector and a magnifying glass. If you give me or him any static on this one I'm gonna melt your badges into bowling trophies. End of conversation!.

So now what, we sit back and watch this psycho calve up half the city.
On the contrary my dear Campbell. Check this out.

Poachers attacked by Mad Gorilla
PM's killer named
Somewhere in the Kilimanjaro regain in Africa yesterday a group of poachers were slain by what one survivor said was a giant mad Gorilla.
The animal ripped into the poachers and left only one survivor, an American man by the name of Dale Perkins.
The animal is still at large.
Run a check on Dale Perkins.
His file's been wiped from police records, like the rest of the stuff.
Dale Perkins: / Access Denied
Seek federal clearance before accessing again.

BEP BEP
IT'S A BOMB!!!

So sue me.
That was shabby police work buddy.
KABOOM!
Now I'm mad.
You got it.
Get me a meeting with Willard.
In a darker part of the city the marine looks on at the hulking mass of flesh that is his captor, shrouded in the half light.
What the hell kinda man are you?
Like any earthly animal, the Demonskin must sleep and when it does so its host will regain consciousness but his movements will be restricted.
What are you going to do with me?
I've eaten people.
RUN
I feel so sick.
God, What have I become?
I am an abomination.
Make sense you oversized FREAK!
I must be killed.
You have to do it.
I may not get another chance to warn anybody.
EAT SHIT FREAK!!!!
It's too late Nathaniel.
It's too late.

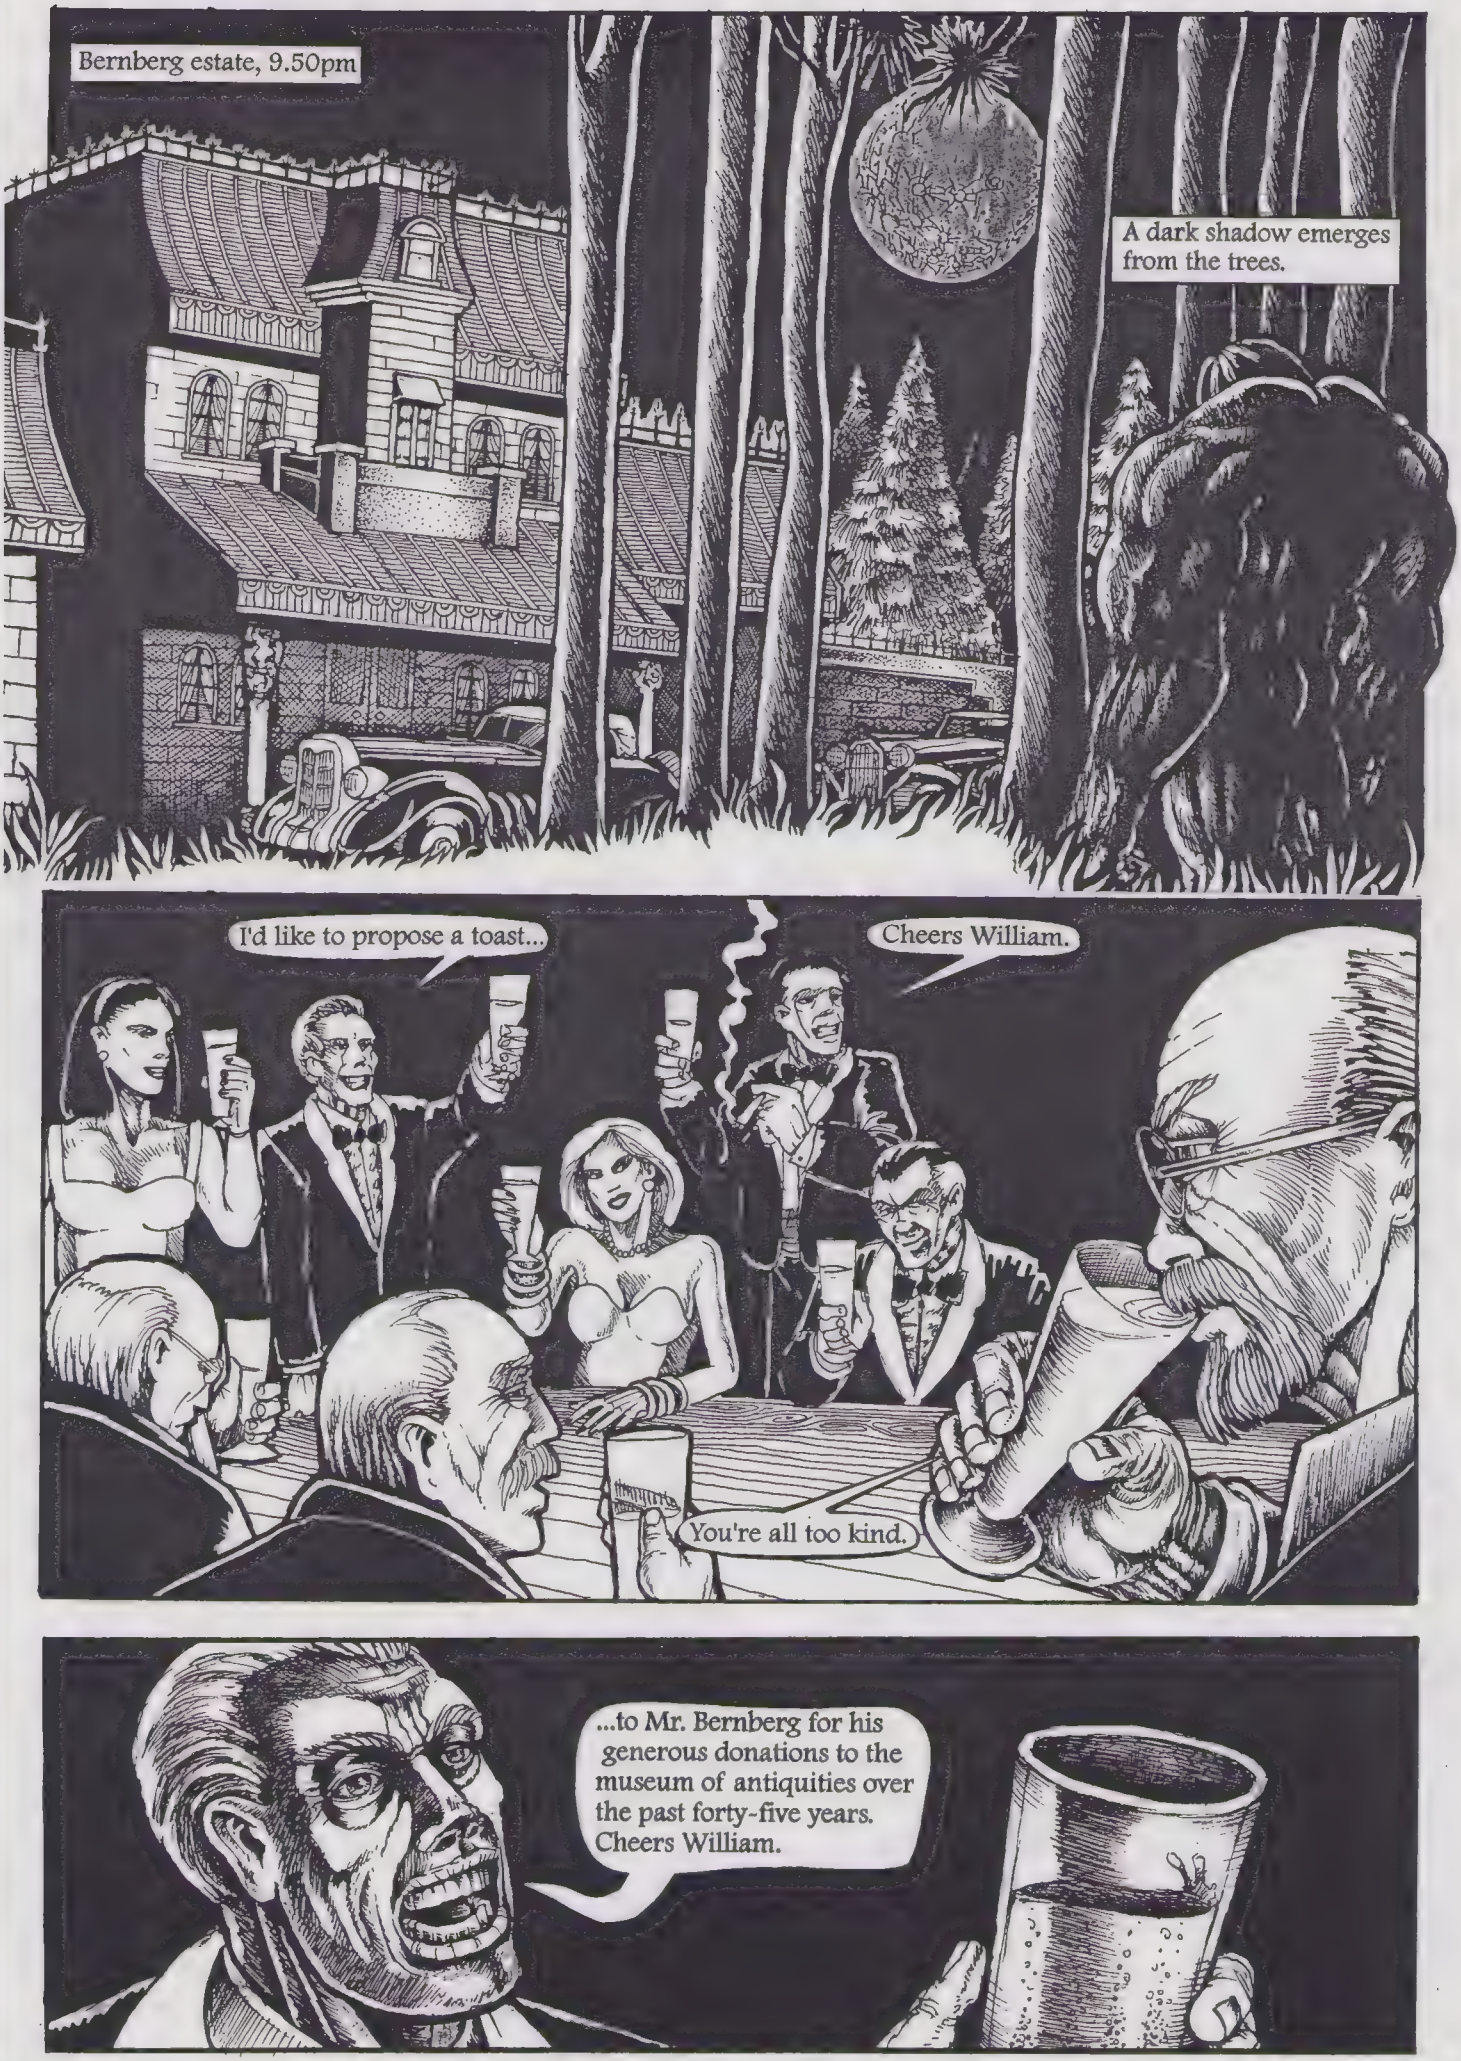
78 STRANGE TREASURES OF THE PAST

"Mummy of a God" - Part of the Bernberg Collection, this mummy was discovered during digs in Mesopotamia and is thought to be over three thousand years old. Inscriptions on the tomb reveal it is the body of a forgotten ruler, but archeaologists are puzzled by the text: "The King who was a Man, gifted by the Gods with the strength of those He consumed." Although the term "consumed" could be a mis-translation of "conquered", ritual cannibalism has not been ruled out.

The mummy is in surprisingly good condition, although limited funds have not allowed it to be properly investigated. It was found by archaeologists from Miskatonic University, S. Carter and S. Studach, who were led to the site by local farmers who pronounced it a "cursed spot that all who are holy shun like pestilence



Bernberg estate, 9.50pm
A dark shadow emerges from the trees.
I'd like to propose a toast...
Cheers William.
You're all too kind.
...to Mr. Bernberg for his generous donations to the museum of antiquities over the past forty-five years. Cheers William.

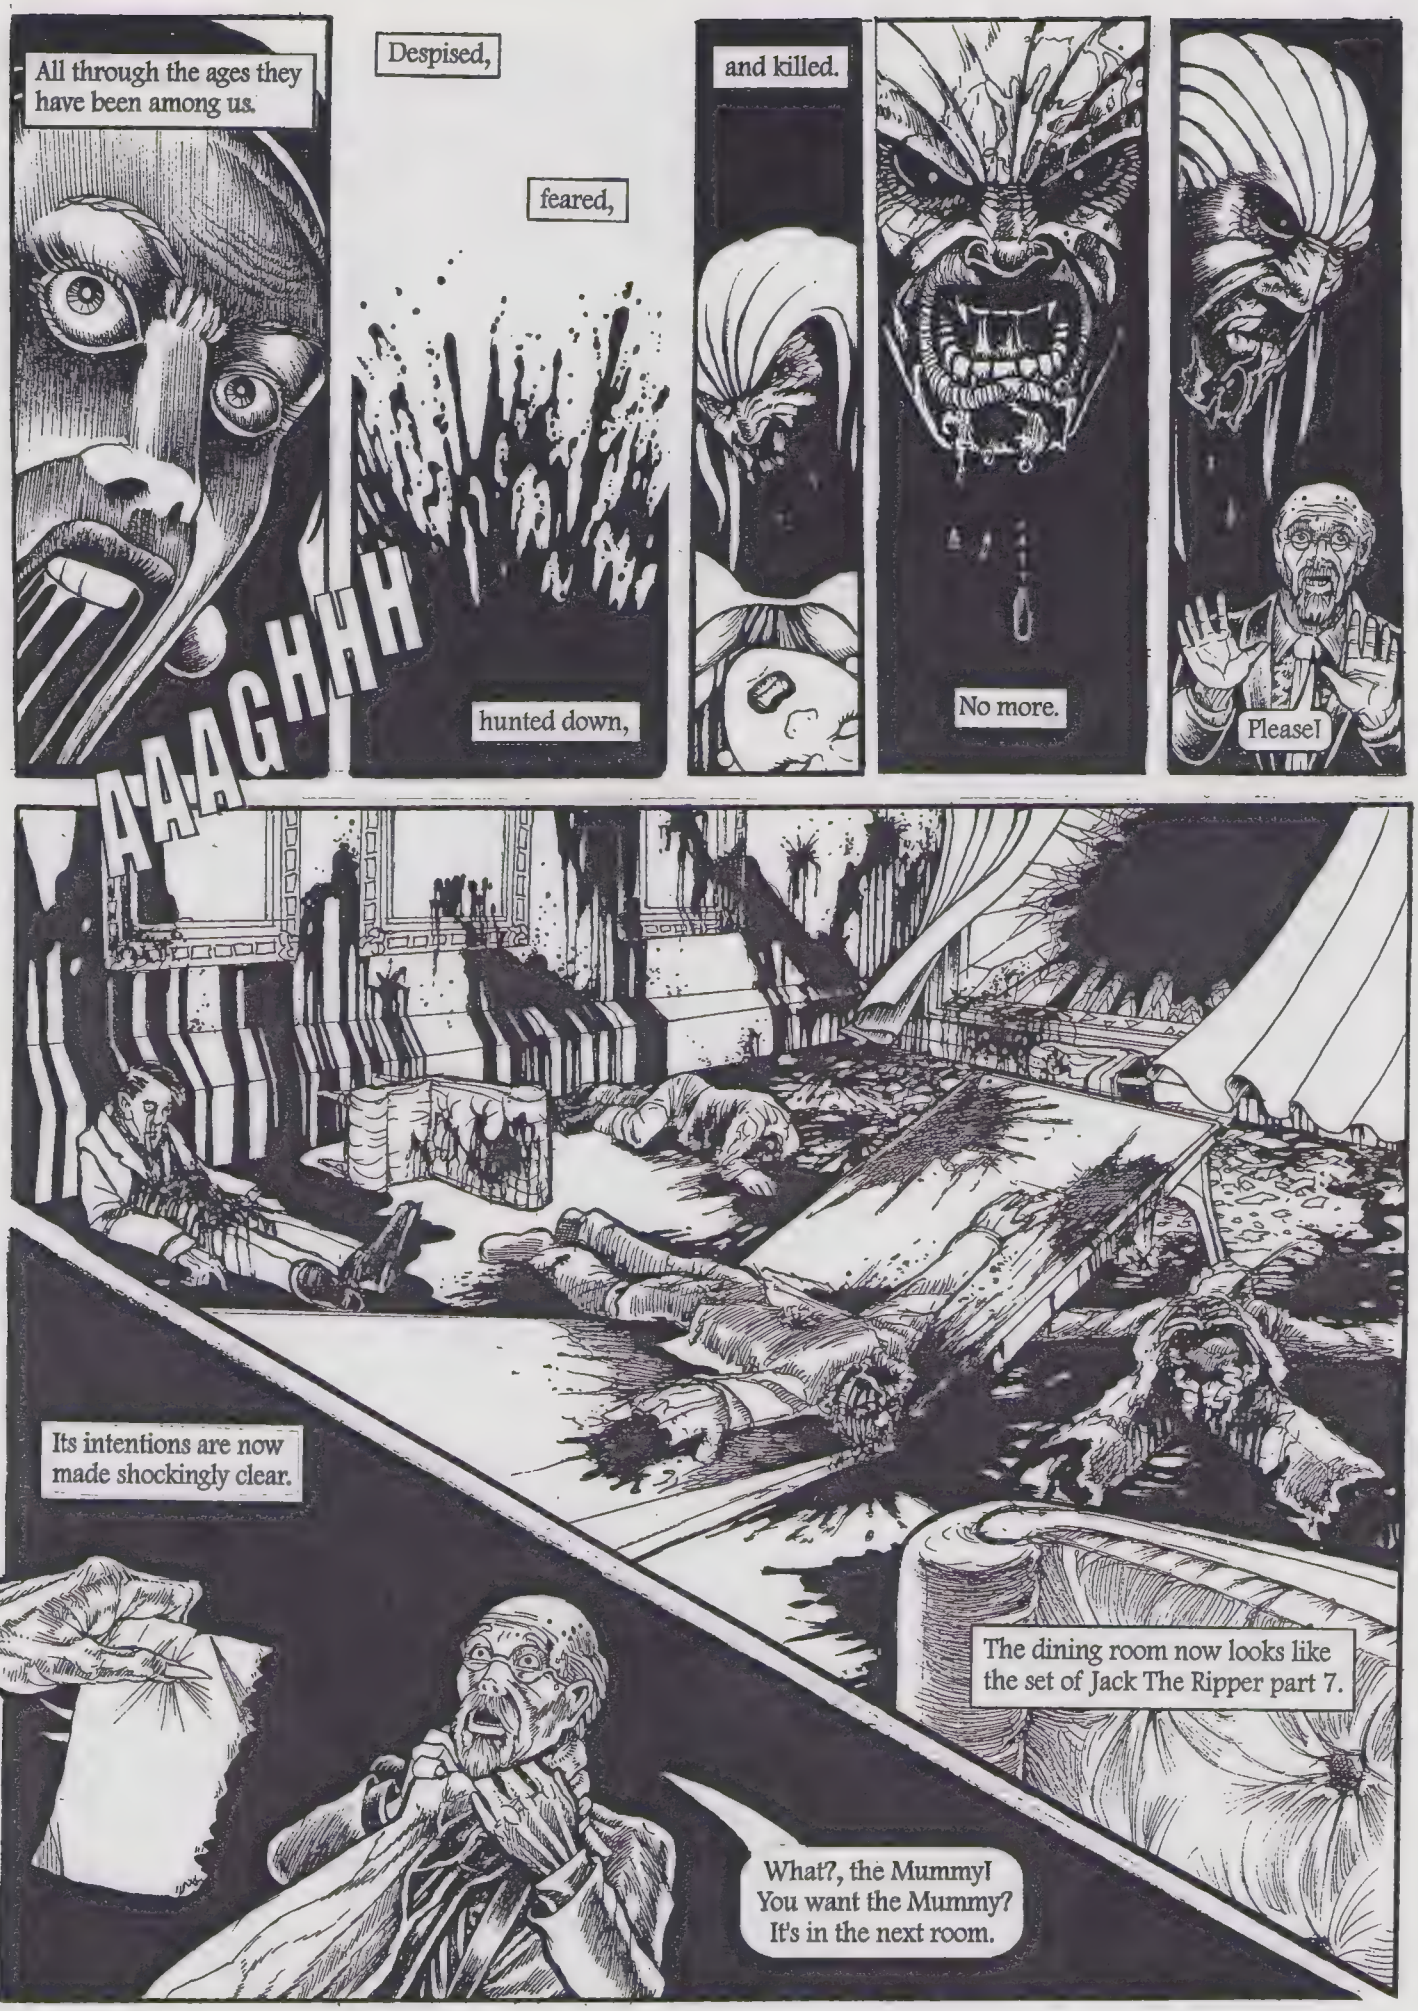
A pleasant evening is quickly transformed into a bloodfest as Mr. Bernberg's wealthy friends and associates become human fodder for the Demonskin.

SLUCK

CHING

CRUNCH!

May, William, get behind me!
What is it?
God!!
CHOMP!
Wrong again.
SHIT!



All through the ages they have been among us.
Despised,
feared,
A-A-AGHHH
hunted down, and killed.
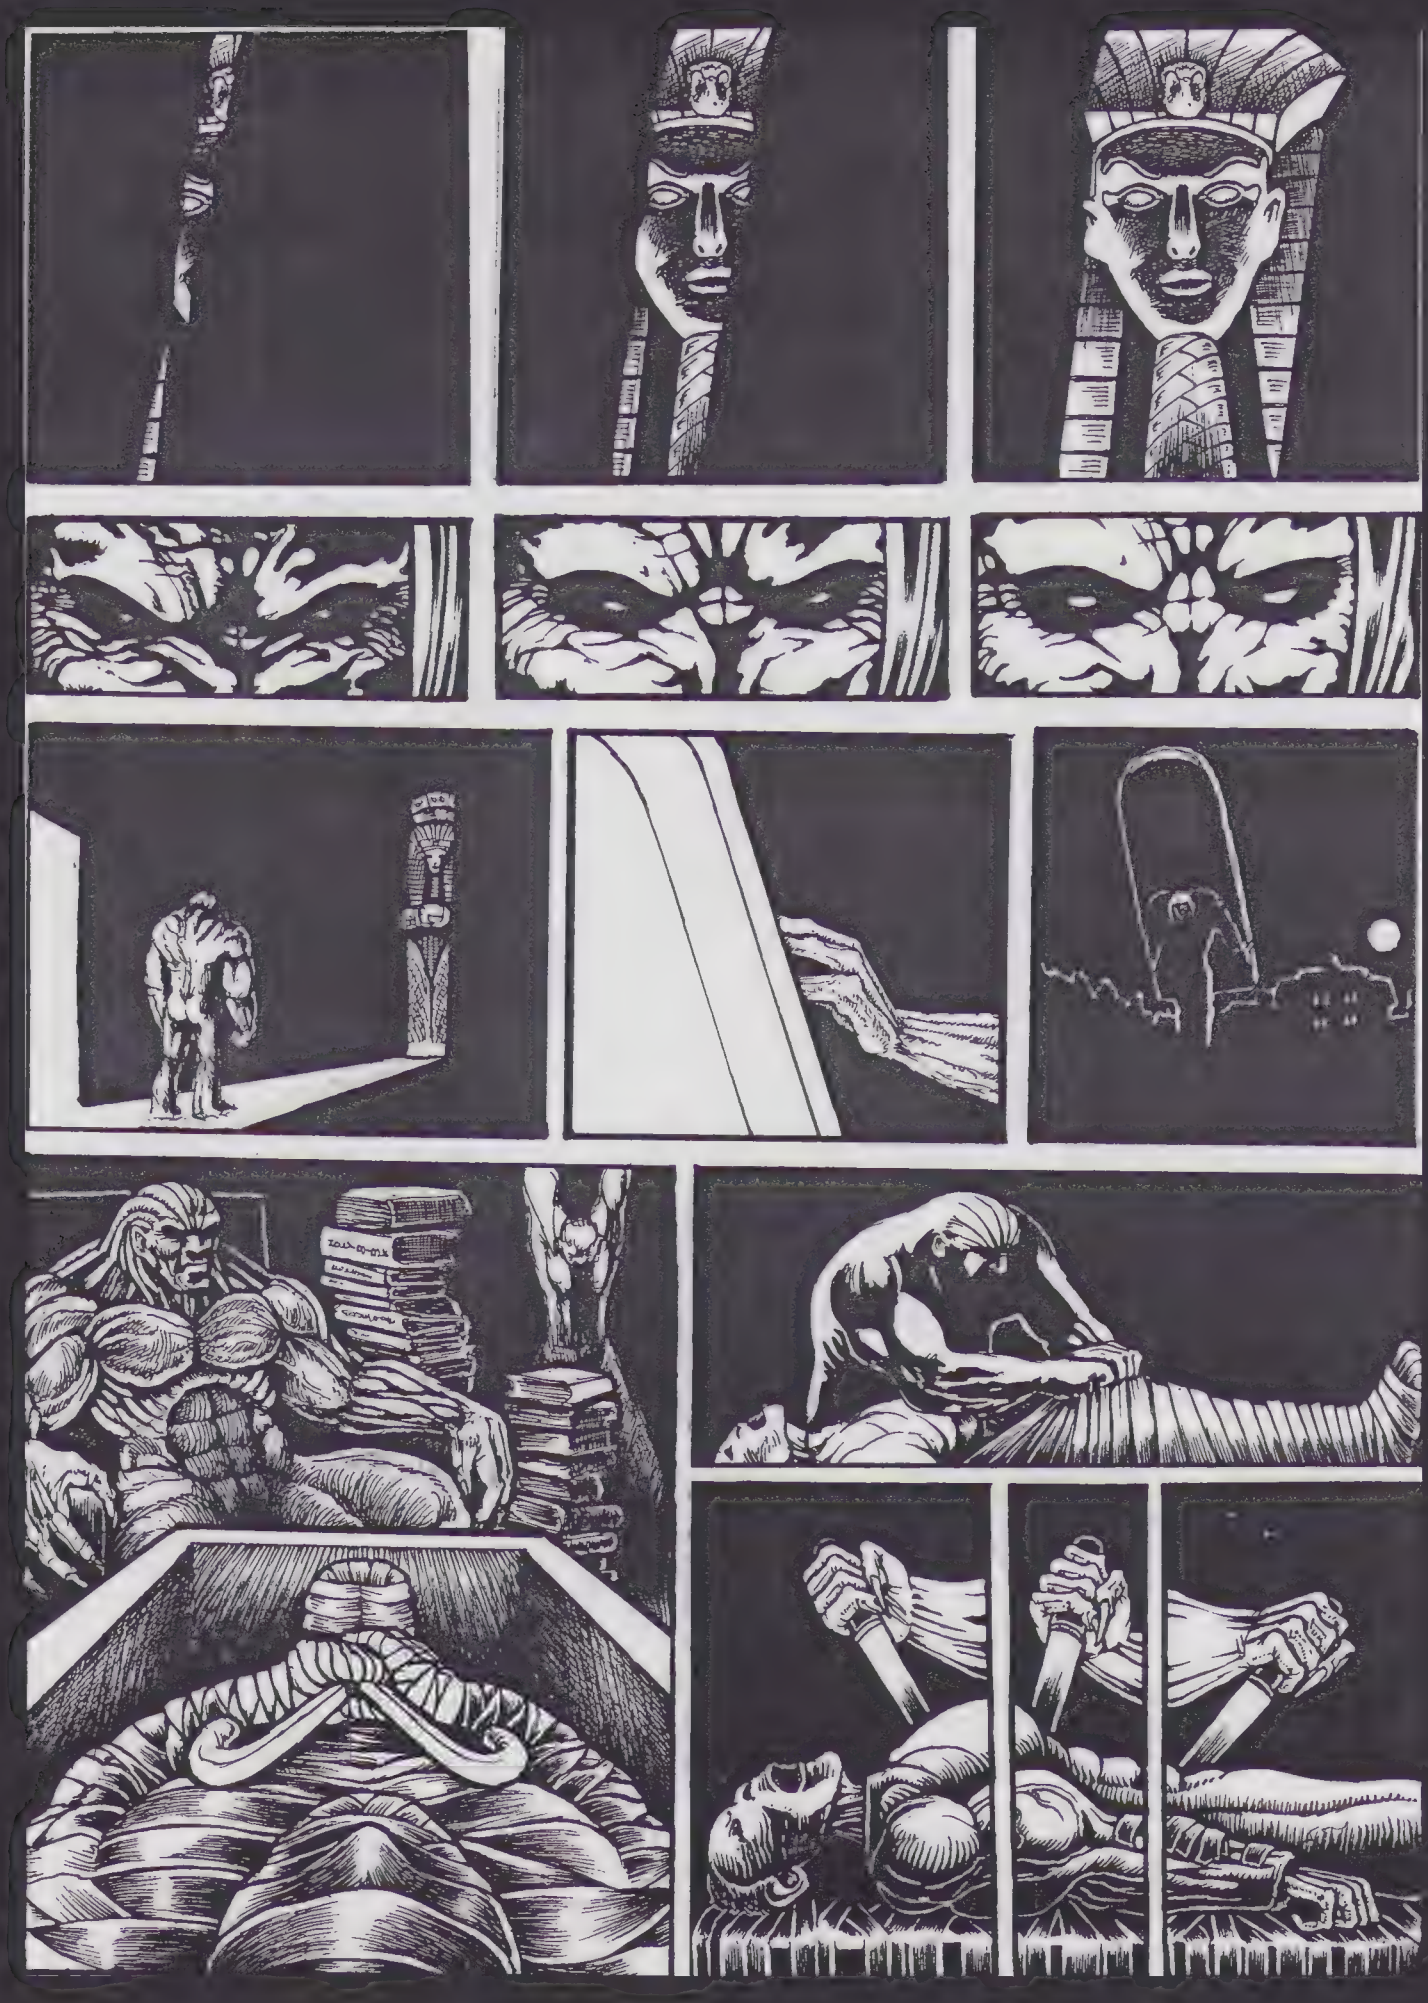
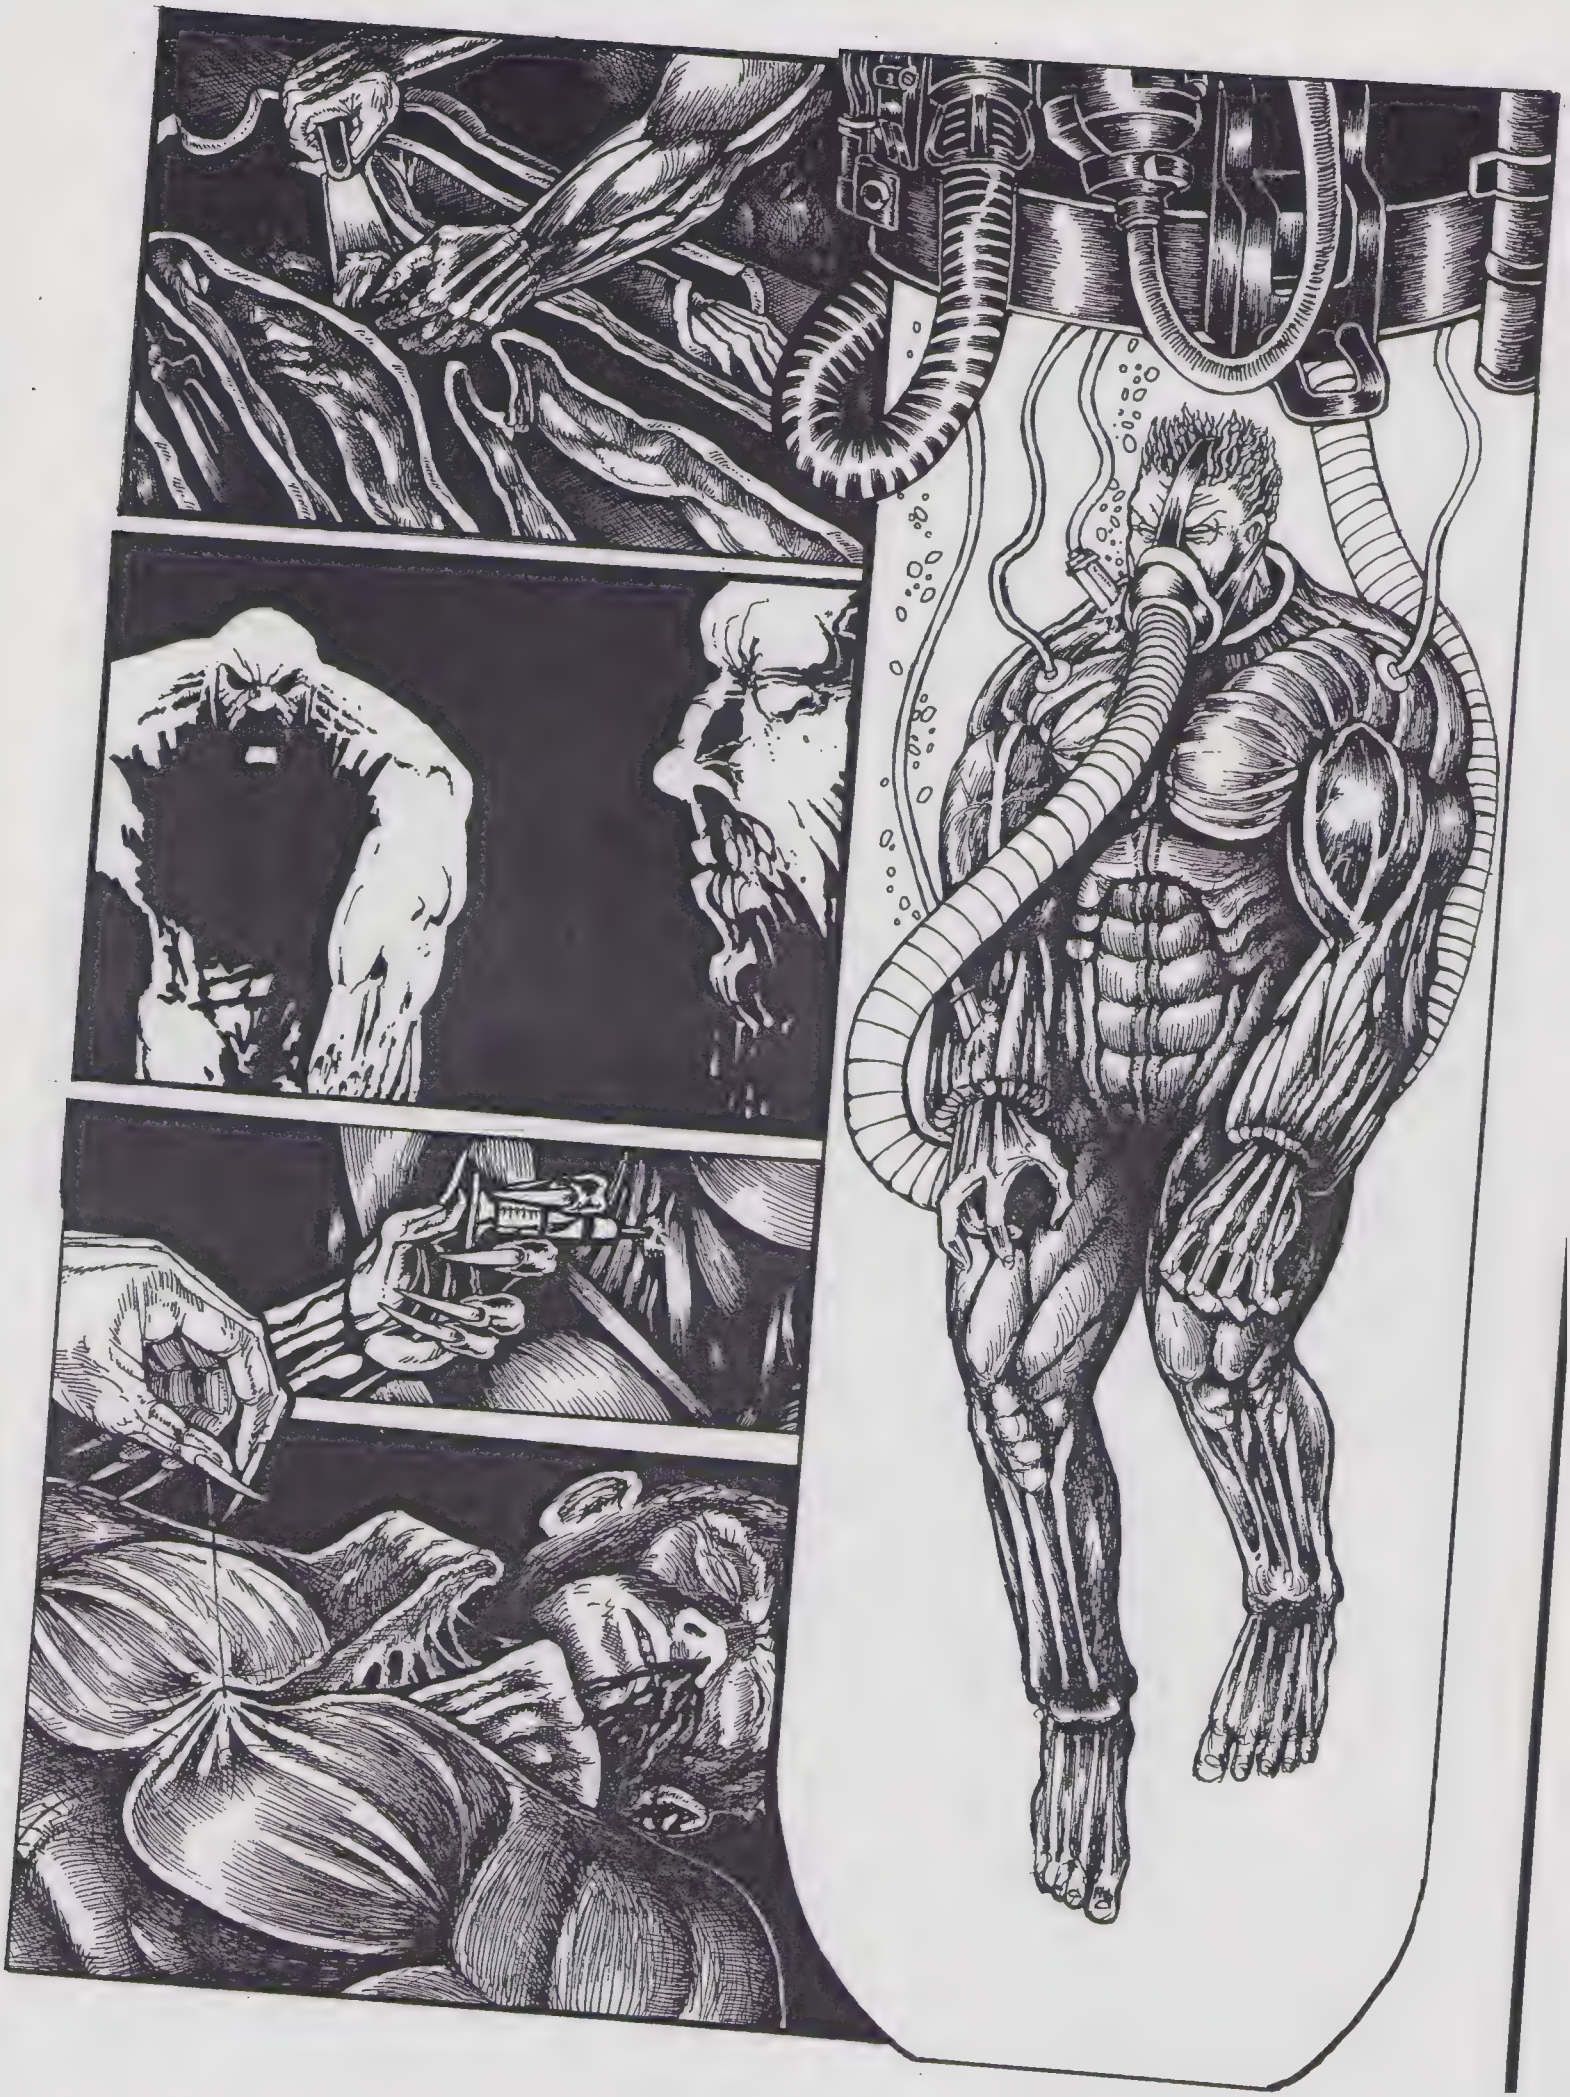
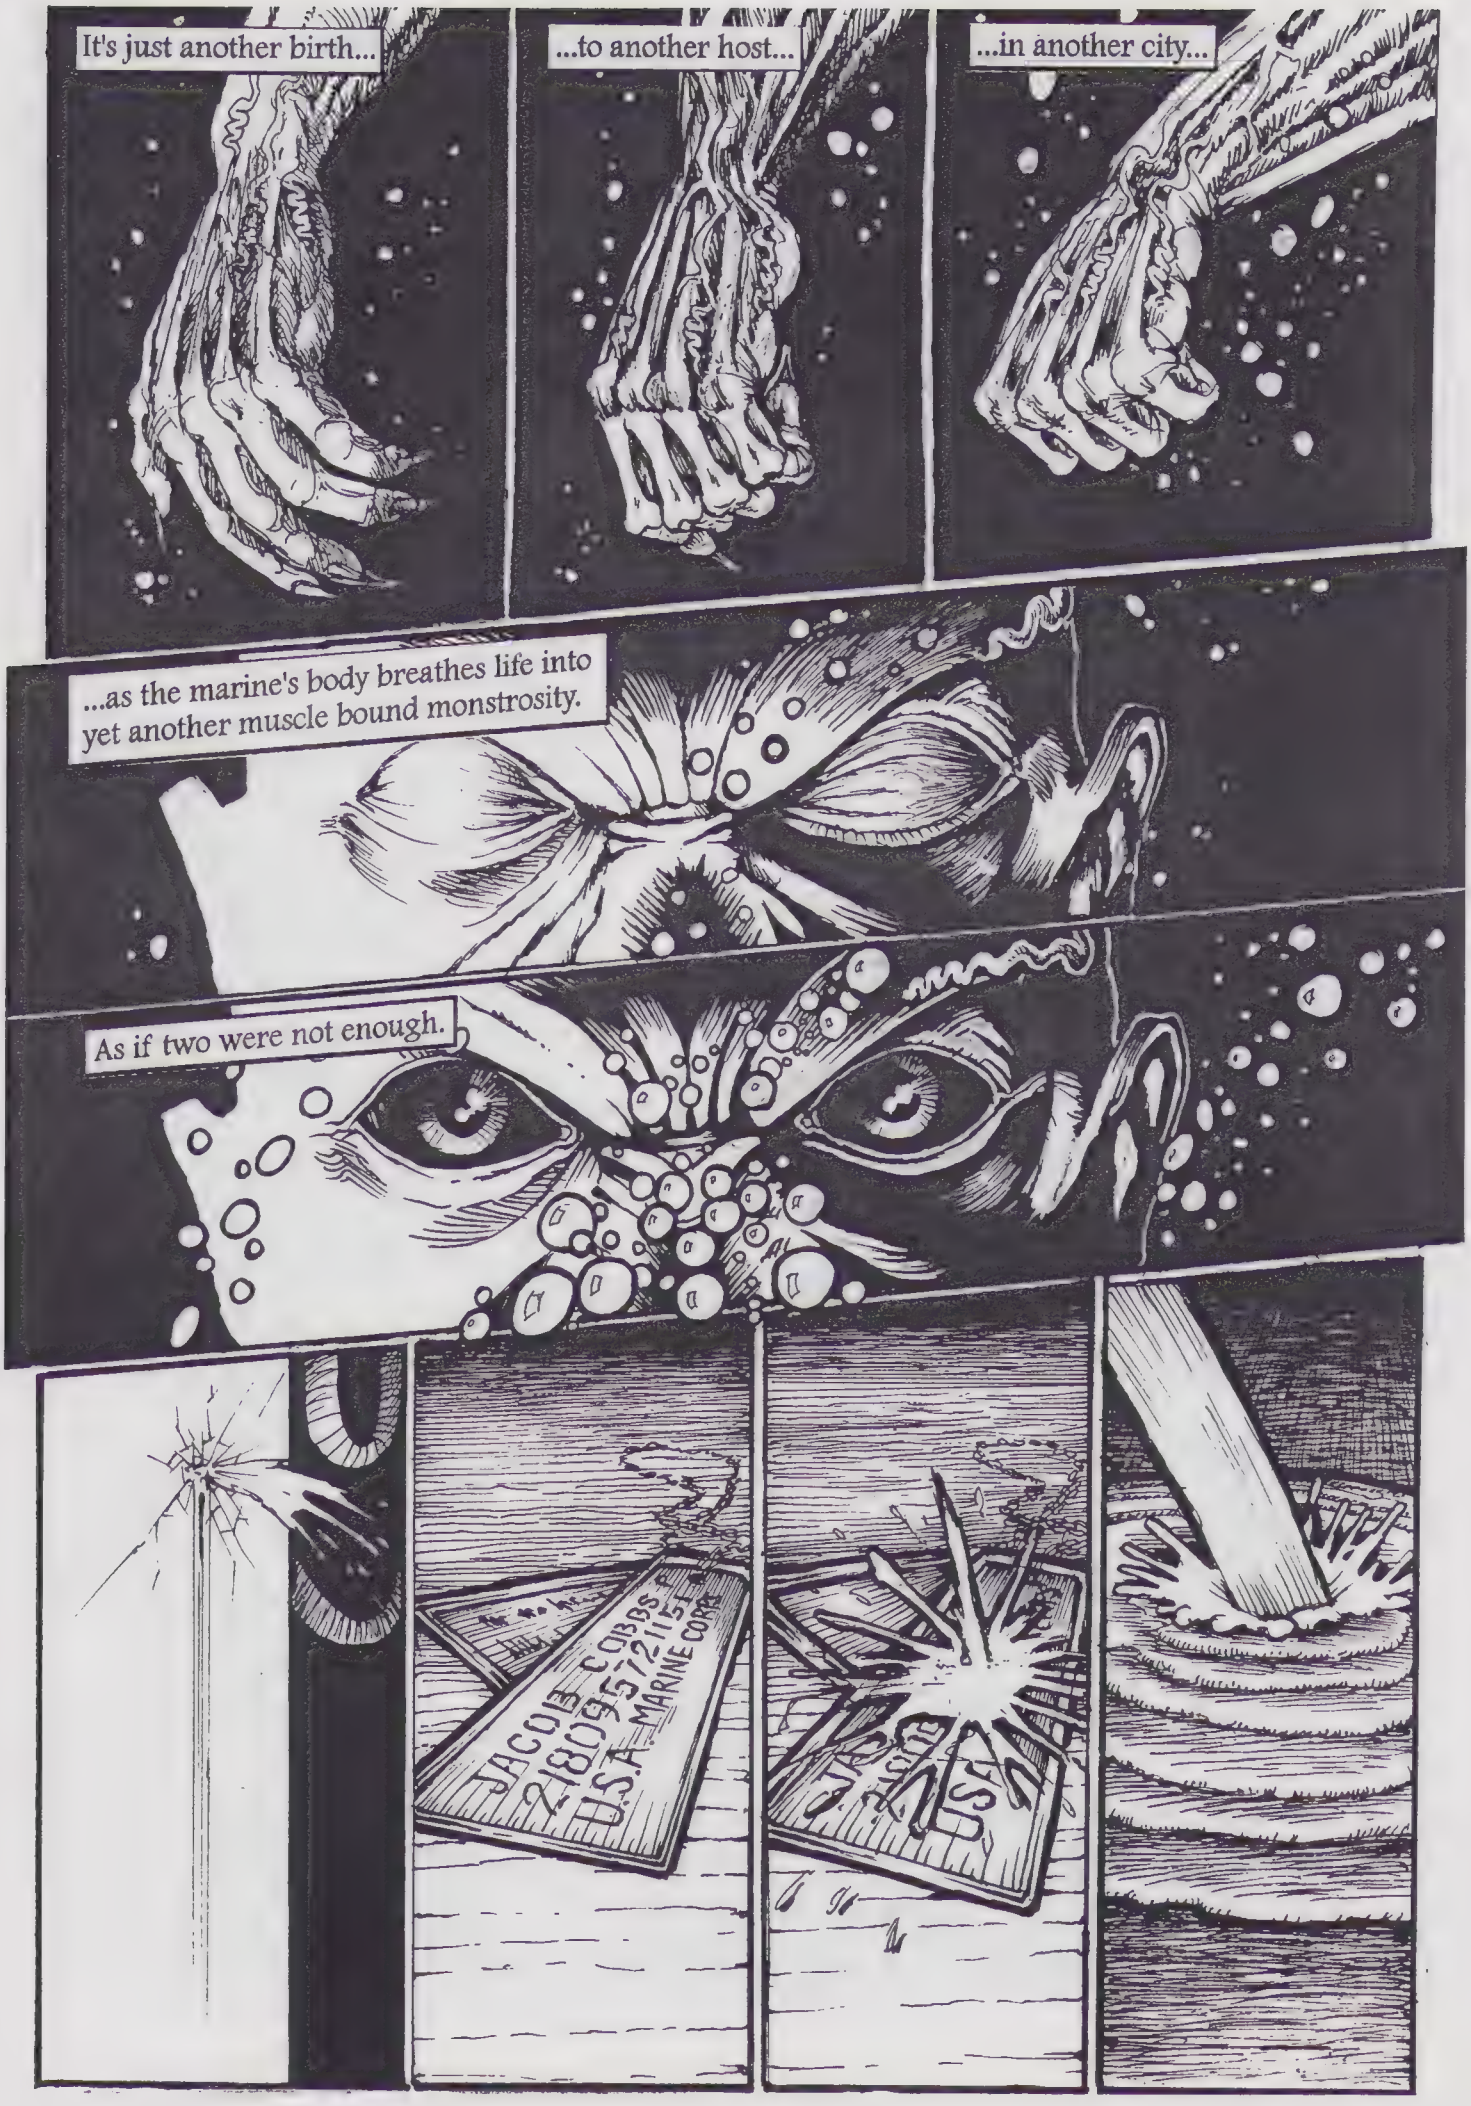
No more.
Please!
Its intentions are now made shockingly clear.
The dining room now looks like the set of Jack The Ripper part 7.
What?, the Mummy!
You want the Mummy?
It's in the next room.







It's just another birth...
...to another host...
...in another city...
...as the marine's body breathes life into yet another muscle bound monstrosity.
As if two were not enough.

Four thousand years ago it was an ancient Egyptian among the Pyramids.
Now it has risen again, clinging to the frame of a psychotic Gulf war veteran, beneath a city that will learn a new name for terror.
